2 Ubuyagasaki

Photographers love this cape, especially in the spring, for its ideal location for taking pictures of Mt. Fuji surrounded by the lake and cherry blossoms.

5 min

3 Kawaguchiko Ohashi Bridge

This north-south arched bridge links the Ubuyagasaki peninsula, in the eastern part of Lake Kawaguchiko, to Nashimiya Park on the southern shore. A walkway along the bridge affords great views of the lake and Mount Fuji. But be careful about stepping out onto the roadway, as motor traffic on the bridge can be heavy!

15 min

4 Kawaguchiko Herb Hall

Visitors will find an array of herbal goods and souvenirs on sale. Or you might want to create your own aromas or make a wreath in the experiential studio. The perfume house annex deals in all manner of fragrant articles. There is also a coffee shop.
Business hours: 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. (closes 5:30 p.m. from November to March). Open all year (temporary closures possible in winter).
